Thank you for supporting American craftsmanship and the dream of our small, family-operated business.

Your CryptoTicr has been built with great care and pride in our workmanship, ensuring it provides many years of reliable service.

Please take a moment to look over the included Quick-Start Guide. On the back, you'll find a Non-Technical Overview designed to help you get acquainted with setting up your new device, no matter your level of technical expertise.

Got questions or suggestions? We'd love to hear from you at support@cryptoticr.com. Your input helps us do better.

Thanks for joining the CryptoTicr family!

All the best,

Lee Omerza
